

Faculty of Natural and Agricultural Sciences (MNAS)

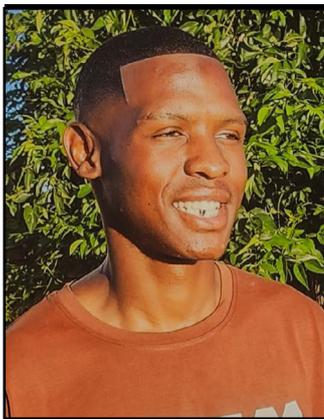

CANDIDATES MANIFESTOS

CHAIRPERSON

Hlalanathi Busuku

I'm doing my first year and I know I am competing against students much older and with more experience than me. It feels like I'm fighting a losing battle applying for chairperson, but I have as much value as the older students. I will bring a fresh perspective to the council. Starting university at UFS South Campus has opened my eyes to the adversities that students face, whether it is trying to meet academic expectations or trying to be heard/respected. If I get elected for FSC I will advocate for the students of south campus, listen to their concerns and do my best in making them heard in council meetings. I will work with the council to offer effective solutions that will ensure that the students of south campus have good experiences. My goal is to make sure that students are well represented, and they feel the campus is an inclusive environment where they will thrive

Oagile Gailele

I am a student who expresses themselves well in academics and my priority is to ensure that students do excellent in their studies and no hiccups which will lead them to end up having negative attitudes towards their academics due to something that happened in their academic and they felt like they never had the power to stand up for themselves since they will get affect automatically

Michelle Jacobs

Good day everyone. My name is Michelle Jacobs, and I am running for Chairperson of the Natural and Agricultural Sciences Faculty Student Council. I believe leadership is not just about holding a position — it's about representing people, listening to their concerns, and turning ideas into action.

Our faculty is full of driven, capable students, and we deserve a council that reflects that energy. As Chairperson, I want to strengthen communication between students and faculty, ensure that your voices are heard, and create more opportunities for students to feel connected and supported within our faculty.

I am organized, dedicated, and not afraid to step up when leadership is needed. Most importantly, I will work for you and with you to ensure that you feel represented within the community that supports you in your academic journey to success. Thank you for your time, and I would truly appreciate your support."

CHAIRPERSON

Ngwako Kgoedi

With almost two years of dedicated experience within the NAS faculty, here at South Campus I have developed a deep understanding of our community's unique needs and aspirations. My improvement of leadership skills and collaborative approach over the years have consistently driven successful team outcomes and fostered inclusive environments. I excel at uniting diverse groups toward common goals, ensuring every voice is heard and valued. As Chairperson, I will leverage my institutional knowledge to bridge the gap between students and faculty, advocate for our collective interests, and implement initiatives that enhance our academic and social experience. I am committed to serving with integrity, transparency, and passion for our faculty's continued growth.

Lebakeng Mokhutle

I am honored to announce myself as a candidate for the position of Chairperson of the FSC. As students, we all wish to have an academic environment where our voices are heard and our issues are addressed. If elected, I will work to ensure that each student is fairly and transparently represented.

My focus is becoming a medium for communication, especially for those students who encounter problems with their RA's, lecturers or any other student leadership. I will also focus on promoting academic support initiatives.

I believe that leadership is about service, accountability, and teamwork. I am fully committed to listening to your ideas, needs and working to achieve a common goal.

Together we can build a student community that is cohesive and successful. All that I ask from you is your trust and your votes so that we can move forward together as a united community."

Pandelani Nemarumane

I am one of the students who worked really hard to get into the University of the Free State because I want a better life for myself and my family. During our time at the University of the Free State we often face problems that can stop us from doing our best.

As someone who wants to be the Chairperson of the Faculty Students Council at the University of the Free State I want to help make sure these problems do not get in the way of our success. Many students here are the hope for their families and should not have to worry about issues in their learning environment.

My goal is to be a connection between students and leadership and to help fellow students find new opportunities that will help them succeed in their studies, careers and personal lives.

CANDIDATES MANIFESTOS

DEPUTY CHAIRPERSON

Pleasure Chauke

I declare myself to serve nothing but only the good things for my school.

Alondwe Dube

My name Alondwe Dube a First-year student at the university of free state. I am running for the position of Deputy Chairperson because I believe in serving the student of the university of free state south campus with fairness and dedication. My priority is to lead the students of university of free state south campus into shaping a better further for theme and the university itself ,to empower a strong voice in decisions making and unit within the university. My selection would help improve my leadership skills and ensure that the voices of my varsity mate a heard and understood although I have never been part of any RCL at my school but I do believe that I have that skills of a lead. Let us create

Busisiwe Mahlangu

Greetings, members of the SRC. I'm excited to stand for the position of being a deputy chairperson. As a dedicated and passionate individual, I'm committed to supporting our chairperson and amplifying the voices of our student body.

I'll focus on key areas like student representation, inclusivity, and community engagement. I'll work closely with student groups, ensure our concerns are heard, and drive initiatives that make a real difference.

As deputy, I'll bring a fresh perspective, energy, and a willingness to listen. I'll be a bridge between students and the university, tackling issues that matter most to you. My experience in student organisations has taught me the importance of collaboration, empathy, and action. I'm committed to transparency, accountability, and putting students first. Let's work together to create a vibrant, inclusive, and supportive university community. I ask for your vote, your support, and your trust. Let's make our university experience unforgettable.

Faculty of Natural and Agricultural Sciences (MNAS)

CANDIDATES MANIFESTOS

DEPUTY CHAIRPERSON

Mulalo Nare

I am Mulalo Prince Nare, a first-year undergraduate in the faculty of Natural and Agricultural Sciences at the University Of The Free State. With six years of leadership experience in school, including tasks such as handling finances for events, tutoring F.E.T students in Pure Mathematics and Physical Sciences. As of now I am the Treasurer of the Basketball Empowerment Association where we aim to uplift the sport due to little support from the sporting community at the South Campus of UFS.

If elected, I seek to make South Campus a better place for students who live both On Campus and Off Campus by making the rules reasonable to follow and make them feel non restricting but by still maintaining order on the campus. I believe this goal is obtainable by agreement and team effort put by both the leaders and followers. Vote for Prince to be Heard!"

Omphile Ncayiyana

I don't even know where to start but here goes nothing. I Omphile Ncayiyana believe that leadership is rooted in service and accountability, and the ability to represent others with honesty and care. To me leadership means listening to people, understanding concerns, and working together to find meaningful solutions. I am passionate about creating an environment within our faculty where students feel supported, respected, and confident that their voices matter. I believe that strong communication and collaboration between students and faculty leadership are essential in building a community where everyone can thrive. As deputy chairperson of the Faculty Student Committee at the University of Free State, I will commit myself to representing students with integrity, dedication, and responsibility. My goal is to help ensure that student perspectives are heard and that

Somila Ntoza

Fellow students, I'm excited to stand before you as a candidate for student representative. I'll fight for affordable education, improved resources, and inclusive campus life. I'll address issues affecting us all, from academic support to student wellbeing. My priorities include:

- Affordable textbooks and resources
- Improved mental health support
- Increased student engagement and inclusivity

Let's build a university experience that benefits everyone. I'm committed to representing your voice and working tirelessly for our community. Vote for me, and let's make our university an amazing place to learn and grow!

CANDIDATES MANIFESTOS

DEPUTY CHAIRPERSON

Chloe Ontong

Leadership is something I have always felt called to pursue. My name is Chloe, and I am currently a student in the NAS faculty. I am passionate about helping others and being a strong voice for students who want to see positive change on campus. I believe that leadership begins with empathy, respect, and the willingness to listen.

I realized that my ability to communicate and connect with people is one of my greatest strengths. What once seemed like simply being talkative became a passion for using my voice to represent others and make a meaningful impact.

I am approachable, solution-driven, and committed to building a supportive and inclusive student community. I work well under pressure, value collaboration, and believe that the best outcomes come from teamwork. If elected, I will represent students with dedication, integrity, and a genuine commitment to making our campus a better place for everyone.

Mosima Pitja

FSC fam! I'm stoked to throw my hat in the ring for deputy chairman. If elected, I promise to bring energy and ideas to the table. I'd love to push for more student events, like coding workshops and career networking nights. Let's make FSC the go-to society for students wanting to level up

Endinako Rewula

I would like to nominate myself for the position of Deputy Chairperson for the UFS South Campus FSC. I am passionate about serving students and making sure that their voices are heard. I believe leadership is about responsibility, teamwork, and being willing to stand up for the needs of others.

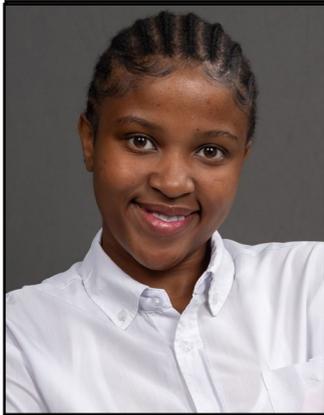

If elected, I will work closely with the Chairperson and the rest of the FSC to represent students fairly and address the challenges we face on campus. I am committed to promoting transparency, unity, and initiatives that improve both the academic and social experience of students.

I am ready to serve, listen, and contribute to building a stronger South Campus community, after all 'we are Kovies working together, being one helping our friends there'.
